PSALMS 44-48

men: grace is poured into thy lips; therefore God hath blessed thee for ever.

3 Gird thy sword upon thy thigh, O most mighty, with thy glory and thy majesty.

4 And in thy majesty ride prosperously because of truth and meekness and righteousness; and thy right hand shall teach thee terrible things.

5 Thine arrows are sharp in the heart of the king's enemies; whereby the people fall under thee.

6 Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: the sceptre of thy kingdom is a right sceptre.

7 Thou lovest righteousness, and hastest wickedness; therefore God, thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows.

8 All thy garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia, out of the ivory palaces, whereby they have made thee glad.

9 King's daughters were among thy honourable women; upon thy right hand did stand the queen in gold of Ophir.

10 Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline thine ear; forget also thine own people, and thy father's house;

11 So shall the king greatly desire thy beauty; for he is thy Lord; and worship thou him.

12 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift; even the rich among the people shall intreat thy favour.

13 The king's daughter is all glorious within; her clothing is of wrought gold.

14 She shall be brought unto the king in raiment of needlework; the virgins her companions that follow her shall be brought unto thee.

15 With gladness and rejoicing shall they be brought: they shall enter into the king's palace.

16 Instead of thy fathers shall be thy children, whom thou mayest make princes in all the earth.

17 I will make thy name to be remembered in all generations; therefore shall the people praise thee for ever and ever.

Psalm 46

To the chief Musicians for the voice of Kir'ath. A Song upon A'lamuth.

GOD is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.

2 Therefore will not we fear, though the earth be removed, and though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea:

3 Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, though the mountains shake with the swelling thereof. Selah.

4 There is a river, the streams whereof shall make glad the city of God, the holy place of the tabernacles of the most High.

5 God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God shall be with her throughout all her days.

6 The heathen raged, they were moved; he uttered his rage, and the Lord is exalted above all the earth.

7 The Lord of hosts is our God of J'rah-el is our refuge.

8 Come, behold the work which the Lord hath done to the earth.

9 He maketh wars to cease unto the ends of the earth; he breaketh the spear, and cutteth the spear in sundry pieces; he burneth the chariot in the fire.

10 Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

11 The Lord of hosts is our God of J'rah-el is our refuge.

Psalm 48

A Song and Psalm for the voice of Kir'ath.

GREAT is the Lord, and praised in the city of God, the mountain of his holiness.

2 Beautiful for situation, the city of the north, the whole earth, is mount Zi'on, the city of the king.

3 God is known in her palaces, her refuge.

4 For, lo, the kings were assembled against her, they passed by together.

5 They saw it, and so they were troubled, and hurried away their flight.

6 Fear took hold upon them, as of a woman in travail.

7 Thou breakest the ships of Tyre with an east wind.

8 As we have heard, so have we seen: we will praise thee, O Lord, in the city of the Lord of hosts, in the city of our God.

of Eternal I... God will esta...

...though... earth melted.

7 The Lord of hosts is our God of J'rah-el is our refuge.

8 Come, behold the work which the Lord hath done to the earth.

9 He maketh wars to cease unto the ends of the earth; he breaketh the spear, and cutteth the spear in sundry pieces; he burneth the chariot in the fire.

10 Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the heathen, I will be exalted in the earth.

11 The Lord of hosts is our God of J'rah-el is our refuge.

...and high...

My mouth shall speak of thy glory, O Lord, and the meditation of thy heart shall be in thy righteousness.

4 I will open my mouth unto a parable, and will open my dark saying upon the harp.

5 I fear in the days of my affliction, when the voice of my heels shall whisper.

6 They that are great in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches.

7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, nor give to God a ransom for him.

8 (For the redemption of their soul is precious, and it ceaseth for ever.)

9 It is as though they should still live for ever, and yet be corrupted.

10 For he seeth that wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others.

11 Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, and their dwellings places to all generations; they call their lands after their own names.

12 Nevertheless man being in honour, shall be as the beasts that perish.

13 This their way is their folly; yet their posterity shall approve their sayings, Selah.

14 Like sheep they are laid in the grave; death shall swallow them up; and the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; and their beauty shall consume in the grave from their dwellings.

15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of the grave; for he shall receive me into his flesh. Selah.

16 Be not afraid when one is made afraid, nor when one is made afraid, nor when one is made afraid.

17 Do not be afraid when one is made afraid, nor when one is made afraid, nor when one is made afraid.

18 Do not be afraid when one is made afraid, nor when one is made afraid, nor when one is made afraid.

19 Do not be afraid when one is made afraid, nor when one is made afraid, nor when one is made afraid.
